2.34.380 Absentee voting – by mail.

A. Any voter may apply to the borough clerk for an absentee ballot to be mailed to the voter if postmarked not more than thirty days, nor less than seven days, before an election. A request may be made by mail, telephone, facsimile or other electronic communication.

B. All applications for an absentee ballot by mail shall be made in writing, either on a form provided by the borough clerk, or in a letter which states the following information:

1. the name of the applicant;
2. the address of the applicant's place of residence;
3. the address to which the applicant desires the absentee ballot to be mailed;
4. the applicant's signature; and,
5. the voter's registration number, Social Security number, or date of birth.

C. Upon receipt of an application for an absentee ballot by mail, and after the ballots are in the clerk's possession and ready for distribution, the borough clerk or other authorized election official shall mail an official ballot, along with other absentee voting materials, to the address indicated on the voter's application.

D. At any time on or before the date of the election, any voter who has received an absentee ballot by mail may vote the ballot. The voted ballot shall then be placed inside the small blank envelope included among the absentee voting materials, which shall then be placed inside the large return envelope. The voter shall then sign the certification on the return envelope in the presence of one of the following attesting authorized officials:

1. an election judge; notary public; commissioned officer of the armed forces, including the National Guard; district court judge or magistrate; clerk of the court; United States Postmaster or authorized postal clerk; or any other person qualified to administer oaths; or,
2. in the case that one of the previously mentioned authorized officials is not reasonably accessible, one witness who is at least 18 years of age.

E. After the voter's certification is witnessed, the voter shall mail or otherwise cause the absentee ballot to be delivered to the borough clerk. If mailed, the voted ballot must be postmarked by the date of the election, and must be received by the borough clerk no later than three calendar days following the election. Otherwise, the voted ballot must be returned to a precinct election official by no later than 8 p.m. on Election Day. The clerk or designated election official shall stamp on the envelope containing the oath the date upon which the ballot is received.

F. Prior to the election, the borough clerk shall deliver a list to the election board of each precinct a list of voters from that precinct that have been issued absentee ballots. If a voter who has been issued an absentee ballot by mail arrives at the precinct on Election Day, the voter shall not be permitted to vote a regular ballot at the polling place unless the voter first surrenders to the election officials the absentee ballot, ballot envelope, and return envelope previously issued. If the voter fails to do so, the voter may vote a questioned ballot. All surrendered absentee ballots and other absentee materials shall be collected by the election officials and returned to the borough clerk.
